WHEREAS after a courageous bout with illness, legendary college basketball coach and announcer Alfred Emanuel McGuire passed away on Friday, January 26, 2001, at age 72; and

WHEREAS Al McGuire played college basketball at St. John's University in New York and 3 seasons of professional basketball with the New York Knicks; and

WHEREAS Al McGuire began his head coaching career at Belmont Abbey, NC in 1958 and came to Marquette University in 1965; and

WHEREAS Al McGuire made the Marquette Warriors a national power in college basketball, compiling an astounding record of 295-80 during his tenure at MU with an equally impressive record of having 92% of his players graduate; and

WHEREAS Al McGuire led Marquette to 11 post season appearances during his tenure, including the NIT finals in 1967, the NIT championship in 1970 and the NCAA finals in 1974; and

WHEREAS in 1977, in his final season as coach, Al McGuire led the Marquette Warriors on an improbable run to the NCAA National Championship; and

WHEREAS, in the final seconds of the championship game Al McGuire left the nation with one of the most memorable moments in sports history as he wept in joy on the bench while his team celebrated their championship; and

WHEREAS Al McGuire left the coaching ranks to begin a 16 year career broadcasting college basketball for NBC, CBS, and Marquette University, which ended in March 2000 with his final game at the Kohl Center in Madison, WI; and

WHEREAS in 1992, Al McGuire was inducted into the James Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame joining his brother Dick McGuire to become the only brothers inducted; and

WHEREAS after leaving coaching Al McGuire founded Al's Run in Milwaukee, which has raised over $4 million for Children's Hospital of Wisconsin; and

WHEREAS Al McGuire served as the Chairman of the Board of the President's Council on Physical Fitness; and

WHEREAS in October 2000, Marquette University announced that their new basketball practice facility would be named in honor of Al McGuire; and

WHEREAS Al McGuire is survived by his wife of forty years, Patricia, his sons Allie and Robert, daughter Noreen, and six grandchildren; now

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, that the Legislature of the State of Wisconsin hereby honors the life and career of coach Al McGuire and mourns his passing. May his memory live forever in our hearts.

RESOLVED, THAT the Senate Chief Clerk shall provide a copy of this joint resolution of the family of Al McGuire and to the Marquette University Athletic Department.
